

the absolute sound[®]

By Jonathan Valin, May 28th 2017

Crystal Cable demo'd its $22k two-way stand-mount Minissimo with $12k Subissimo woofer, driven by Crystal's Cube amp and wired with Crystal's new Ultimate Dream cable (which judging from what I heard is a must-review item).

On a Johnny Cash number, the Minissimo/Subissimo offered up their usual superb presentation—rich in color, spacious in staging, high in resolution, and quite natural in presence, with superb bass even without the sub (the Ultimate Dream cable seemingly added an octave of low end to the Minissimo).

A superior stereo system.